

COMMENCEMENT

Undergraduate Ceremony

SATURDAY, MAY 9, 2026 | 2:30 P.M.

First Horizon Coliseum - Main Arena

1921 West Gate City Boulevard, Greensboro, North Carolina

May 9, 2026

Dear Graduate,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff and students of North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, I am honored to offer heartfelt congratulations as you celebrate this remarkable milestone, your graduation.

We are immensely proud of the determination, perseverance and dedication you have demonstrated throughout your time at North Carolina A&T. Your degree represents the knowledge and skills you gained during your academic journey, but it also reflects your resilience, your commitment to excellence and your readiness to meet the challenges of an ever-changing world. It stands as a symbol of the countless hours of study, growth and perseverance that brought you to this moment.

At North Carolina A&T, we prepare students not only for success today but for leadership in the years ahead. Our strategic framework, Now, Next and Beyond, reflects this commitment. The work happening Now focuses on strengthening the student experience and advancing academic excellence. The initiatives taking shape Next expand research, innovation and partnerships that will propel our university forward. Looking Beyond, we envision the long term impact our Aggies will have in communities across the nation and around the world. As members of the Class of 2026, you are part of this journey and an essential part of the future we are building together.

Throughout your time here you have heard the phrase, "Always doing, never done." That spirit captures the essence of Aggie leadership. It reminds us that learning is continuous and that the responsibility to serve and lead does not end at graduation. The resilience, ingenuity and determination you demonstrated during your studies will continue to guide you as you pursue your aspirations and make a difference in the lives of others.

As you celebrate this important day, take time to reflect on the journey that brought you here. The memories you have created will remain with you for a lifetime. May they always remind you of your connection to North Carolina A&T and encourage you to remain engaged with the Aggie family wherever your path may lead.

With deepest Aggie Pride,

RESPONSE

LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING

Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and Heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;
Sing a song full of the hope that the present
 has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered;
We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by Thy might led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God,
 where we met Thee;
Lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world,
 we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.

ALMA MATER

ALMA MATER

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., a monument indeed,
Around thy base with grateful hearts behold thy students kneel.
We bless the power that gave thee birth to help us in our need,
We'll ever strive while here on earth all loyalty to yield.

REFRAIN

With joy, with joy, dear A. and T., thy students turn from thee
To spread thy trophies year by year from Dare to Cherokee.

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., the signet thou shalt be,
Set by our great old commonwealth, proud boaster of the free;
She'd have the record of her worth on granite not inscribed —
Nay, let the children of her birth proclaim it by their lives.

Dear A. and T., dear A. and T., henceforth our aim shall be,
By precepts wise and deeds more sure to bless the State
 through thee;
The arts of industry to wield against an idle foe.
A harvest rich from ripened fields of what thy students sow.

SPEAKER

QUEEN LATIFAH

Actress, Producer, Music Label President, Author and Entrepreneur

Queen Latifah is a Grammy award-winning musician, critically acclaimed television and Oscar-nominated film actress, producer, music label president, author and entrepreneur.

Latifah has had amazing success since her career began in Hollywood and became the first hip-hop artist to receive a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 2006. She received an Academy Award nomination for Best Supporting Actress, a Golden Globe nomination and a Screen Actors Guild (SAG) Award nomination for her portrayal of Mama Morton in the feature musical “Chicago.” She also received an Emmy Award nomination, a Golden Globe win and a SAG Award win for her role in the cable film “Life Support.” She received a National Medal of the Arts from the U.S. government in 2024 and was a 2023 honoree at the 46th Kennedy Center Honors.

Making her big screen debut in Spike Lee’s 1991 film, “Jungle Fever,” Latifah then starred in “Set It Off” and co-starred with Holly Hunter and Danny DeVito in the critically acclaimed “Living Out Loud.” From 1993-1998, Latifah starred in the network comedy “Living Single.” Following “Chicago,” she starred in and executive-produced the box office hit “Bringing Down the House.” Her additional film credits include “The Secret Life of Bees” alongside Jennifer Hudson, Alicia Keys and Dakota Fanning; Neil Meron and Craig Zadan’s “Hairspray”; “Mad Money” opposite Diane Keaton and Katie Holmes; “Just Wright”; “Joyful Noise”; “Last Holiday”; and “Beauty Shop.” She also starred in and executive-produced the cable movie adaptation of “Steel Magnolias.” From 2013-2014, she hosted “The Queen Latifah Show,” which she produced with partner Shakim Compere and Overbrook Entertainment’s Will Smith, Jada Pinkett Smith and James Lassiter.

In May 2015, Latifah made her way back to the small screen, earning an Emmy Award nomination, Golden Globe nomination and a SAG Award for Outstanding Performance by a Female Actor in a Television Movie or Miniseries for her role in the cable film “Bessie,” which she also produced.

In 2017, Latifah starred in the hit comedy “Girls Trip” alongside Pinkett Smith, Regina Hall and Tiffany Haddish. She also starred in the 2016 faith-based movie “Miracles from Heaven” opposite Jennifer Garner, and reprised her role in “Ice Age: Collision Course.” Latifah also starred in the hit FOX series “Star,” which had its finale May 2019. Additionally, she took to the stage and small screen performing as the title character in the television musical “The Wiz Live!” alongside Uzo Aduba, Mary J. Blige, Ne-Yo, Common and David Alan Grier.

Latifah has earned seven Grammy Award nominations, as well as a Grammy Award for Best Rap Solo Performance in 1994. In 2004, she was nominated for Best Female Rap Solo Performance for “Go Head.” In 2005, she was nominated for Best Jazz Vocal Album for “The Dana Owens Album,” and in 2008, she was nominated for Best Traditional Pop Vocal Album for “Trav’lin’ Light.”

Flavor Unit Entertainment, the production company owned and operated by Latifah and Compere, was behind the hit feature comedies “Bringing Down the House,” “Beauty Shop,” and “The Perfect Holiday.” Flavor Unit also produced the films “The Cookout,” “Just Wright,” and 2022’s “End of the Road,” as well as “Bessie” and “Life Support.” Together, Latifah and Compere produced the film “The Perfect Match” and “The Real MVP: The Wanda Durant Story,” “The Best Place to Be,” “Curvy Style with Timothy Snell” and “The Rap Game” for television.

Additionally, Flavor Unit produced the one-hour special event “Dear Mama,” which premiered on Mother’s Day 2016 and has been renewed as an annual special.

In November 2019, Latifah was seen as Ursula in ABC’s live-action remake of “The Little Mermaid.” In April 2020, she starred in the Quibi drama, “When the Street Lights Go On” and executive produced Lifetime’s “The Clark Sisters: First Ladies of Gospel,” which became the highest-rated original movie for the network since 2016. She also headlined the Netflix sports drama “Hustle” opposite Adam Sandler along with starring and producing Ray Giaratana’s “The Tiger Rising.”

Latifah most recently starred in and executive produced the CBS series reboot of “The Equalizer,” which quickly became TV’s No. 1 scripted series when it premiered in 2021 and ran five seasons through 2025. Next, Latifah will return as the voice of woolly mammoth Ellie in “Ice Age: Boiling Point,” the franchise’s sixth installment set for theatrical release Feb. 5, 2027.

HISTORY

NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL AND TECHNICAL STATE UNIVERSITY

Established in 1891, under the Second Morrill Act of 1890, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University is a land-grant, doctoral, high research activity university. The Second Morrill Act expanded the nation's system of land-grant universities to include a historically Black institution in those states where segregation denied minorities access to the land-grant institutions established by the First Morrill Act (1862).

Throughout its 135-year history, North Carolina A&T has maintained a rich tradition in academics, research and outreach. Today, the university is committed to fulfilling its fundamental purposes through exemplary undergraduate and graduate instruction, scholarly and creative research and effective public service and engagement. A&T is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. An institution of choice for high-achieving students, A&T is a preeminent land-grant university now rapidly evolving as an exponential institution.

With an enrollment of 15,275 students, A&T is the nation's largest historically Black college or university (HBCU) for the 12th consecutive year. A&T awards baccalaureate, master's and doctoral degrees through the College of Agriculture and Environmental Sciences; the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences; the Willie A. Deese College of Business and Economics; the College of Education; the College of Engineering; the John R. and Kathy R. Hairston College of Health and Human Sciences; the College of Science and Technology; The Graduate College; and the Joint School of Nanoscience and Nanoengineering. The university is widely recognized for strengths in science, technology, engineering and mathematics, as well as the liberal arts and humanities and a growing array of professional programs. The university also has moved rapidly to blend its academic and research programs with the needs of society and industry, forming a symbiotic relationship. A&T has advanced to the forefront in the area of research and is one of the top-ranking institutions in the University of North Carolina System for sponsored research funding, having secured $250 million in contracts and grants over the past two fiscal years. The strength and potential of the research enterprise at A&T is demonstrated by the university's ability to sustain major programs in nanotechnology, biotechnology, computational science and engineering, energy and environment, information sciences and technology, leadership and community development, logistics and transportation systems, education and public health.

Upon graduating, students join the university's 70,000 alumni of record who hold (or have held) positions of leadership in industries and communities around the world. Some of A&T's nationally acclaimed alumni include Henry E. Frye '53, former N.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice; U.S. Representatives Alma S. Adams and Jonathan Jackson; Clara Adams-Ender '61, author and retired Army brigadier general; the late Alvin A. "Al" Attles Jr. '60, former NBA player, coach and general manager; Elvin Bethea '68, NFL Hall of Famer; Ezell Blair Jr./Jibreel Khazan '63, Joseph A. McNeil '63, the late Franklin E. McCain Sr. '63 and the late David Richmond '10 (degree awarded posthumously), members of the A&T Four Four; Joe L. Dudley Sr. '62, Dudley Products founder; the late Rev. Jesse L. Jackson Sr. '63, civil rights activist and former presidential candidate; the late Dr. Ronald E. McNair '71, NASA astronaut; and Michael S. Regan '98, former U.S. EPA Administrator.

Thirteen presidents/chancellors have served the institution since its founding: Dr. John O. Crosby (1892-1896), Dr. James B. Dudley (1896-1925), Dr. Ferdinand D. Bluford (1925-1955), Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs (1956-1960), Dr. Samuel DeWitt Proctor (1960-1964), Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy (1964-1980), Dr. Cleon Thompson Jr. (interim, 1980-1981), Dr. Edward B. Fort (1981-1999), Dr. James C. Renick (1999-2006), Dr. Lloyd V. Hackley (interim, 2006-2007), Dr. Stanley Battle (2007-2009), Dr. Harold L. Martin Sr. (2009-2024) and Dr. James R. Martin II (current).

COSTUME

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The academic costume worn today derived from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics as well, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings made caps and floor length gowns with attached hoods a necessity for warmth. Probably because of the costumes' religious heritage, they remained largely drab until the universities gradually began to pass from the control of the church, whereupon some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and the academic costume worn today.

In light of the nation's strong English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity with regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed, which prepared a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has been adopted by all universities. Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the more familiar mortarboard square — a shape that resembles a scholar's book. Legend has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it covers any dress, which might indicate rank or social strata. The hood not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university from which the degree was obtained.

THE GOWN

BACHELOR – Blue, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

MASTER – Black, long or short sleeves with arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

DOCTOR – Black, with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

THE HOOD

BACHELOR – Three feet in length with a two-inch wide velvet.

MASTER – Three and one-half feet in length with a three-inch wide velvet.

DOCTOR – Four feet in length with a five-inch wide velvet and panel at the sides. The lining of the hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution from which the degree was received. The color of the velvet is Ph.D. blue.

Candidates for doctoral degrees at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University wear gowns fastened at the neck, hoods draped down the back and black tams with a gold tassel.

MACE

The mace, a ceremonial academic symbol with a rich history dating back to ancient Rome, is a traditional element of most university and college commencement ceremonies, convocations and other prominent academic events throughout each school year. Typically three to four feet long with stylized, often ornate design details and weighing as much as 20 pounds, maces have an imposing presence and are meant to represent authority and the importance of higher education.

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University recently retired a 34-year-old mace gifted to the university by the graduating class of 1961. In its place is a beautiful new mace created to better represent the current and evolving state of North Carolina A&T as an esteemed and exponential doctoral research land-grant HBCU that leads the nation in education and graduation of Black undergraduate and graduate students.

Designed and produced by Medalcraft Mint, a nationally leading producer of academic, military and athletic medallions, awards, challenge coins, shadow boxes and more, in collaboration with the A&T Office of Special Events and Projects, the new mace is a 42-inch scepter made of brass and walnut with a cordovan stain.

At the top of the mace are two North Carolina A&T official seals represented in 4-inch brass medallions against the front and back of a circular walnut panel. Below that is a four-sided, lantern-style head, with the seals of the State of North Carolina and the University of North Carolina System represented on alternating sides.

The top and head rest atop a walnut staff with three brass bands in intervals down its length, comprising the mace in entirety. When not in use, the mace rests for display and storage purposes on a walnut stand emblazoned with a 3-inch brass North Carolina A&T seal.

“While a mace uses symbolism and materials that convey history, mission and tradition, the new mace brings that depiction into a current and specific context,” said Interim Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs Catherine Edmonds. “North Carolina A&T has experienced so much change over the past 20 years as it has evolved as a land-grant research university and grown in national impact. The new mace is an important symbol of that progress and a visual indication of what the history holds for our university.”

In ancient times, maces honored nobility and war heroes. Later used in the courts of England, they were symbols of authority. Today in Western culture, maces are most often associated with academic and governmental processions. In academic use, maces are symbols of the college/university as a body of scholars within its own legally constituted authority.

The Faculty Senate president bears the mace in all formal academic processions. In A&T commencement ceremonies, the mace will be carried at the front of the procession of platform committee members to the commencement stage and in the recessional, as the platform committee exits the coliseum.

BACCALAUREATE HONORS

* Students awarded two baccalaureate degrees
